The popularity of THE LEDGER is unquestioned, and its thousands of readers are not restricted to any particular class. Among its most ardent admirers is Master R. B. Lovel, Jr., who, though only twenty-three months old, is wont to adjust his grandpa's "spec" and "read de LEDGER" every day.

THE GREATEST CREDITOR.
All that we grant the senior;
And more than this lesser;
He is the greatest creditor;
That ever lived or died.

He credits for his weekly sheet,
Will credit for an "A,"
And always credit what he clips,
And always will clip.

An Editor's supposed to live
On ate or "printer's ink";
He runs his paper just for fun,
His health and exercise.

Mr. Clarence Hughes, aged 32, and Mrs. Annie Garrett, aged 23, both of this committee, will be married in this city Wednesday.

It's "Judge L. W. Galbraith" now, if you please. He was Presiding in the Police Court yesterday in the absence of Judge Wadsworth.

It's Like Walking In the Dark to drop in any place you see the sign "Jeweler" when your watch don't keep time and you want it put in such condition that it will. Not one in every ten can make more than a bluff at cleaning it. It ought to be cleaned, of course, but cleaning is the smallest item of all that goes toward making a watch keep time. There are many fine adjustments that may have become deranged, or if some of the delicate parts are badly worn, it requires the highest grade of skill in watchmaking to repair it so it will keep perfect time.

A watch made right here--cut from the raw material, pronounced by experts to be equal to anything they have ever seen in finish and workmanship,--that we have carried for over ten years will sustain our claim to being the only place in Maysville where you can have your watch put in perfect order, no matter what it needs.

FOUND THE WHISKY.

Experience of a Revenue Officer in North Carolina.

Philadelphia Times.

The remarkable story has just come to light in which figure moonshiners, a Revenue officer, a beautiful mountain rider. Moonshiners were forgotten in the next few days. Within a week he had his own wheel sent hither by express, and was more than pleased to comply with Salie Newman's laughing orders that it must be kept at the farm. Every day they went out together, starting from the farm in the afternoon and riding through the leafy byways, frequently stopping at the residence of Salie's aunt in the village for supper, and then going home in the moonlight.

Weeks sped away, until one day Dickson was rudely awakened from his dream of bliss by a peremptory order from Washington to return home, his mission having proven fruitless. Sadly he started out with Salie for a final ride. All unconscious of his woes, Salie willed him upon his strange silence, and then challenged him to a race. Away she sped, and he was sorely tried to keep at her side. Neither noticed the fragments of a pane of window glass, dropped on the road by some unlucky farmer, until too late.

"Hold on, our tires are punctured," shouted Dickson, jumping from his wheel: "the great horn spoon, what's that?" added, gazing with amazement at a tiny stream of liquor spurting from both front and rear tires. A moment later the whole situation fell upon him. "Oh, you little moonshiner," he murmured, and then he let his wheel fall and sprang to catch Salie, who had swooned.

For six weeks the valiant Dickson had been assisting unaware the moonshiners by carrying whisky in his pneumatic tires, inserted at the farmhouse and deftly removed by Aunt Jane in the village.

Did he arrest the guilty maid? Not much. He resigned his position and married her, and the happy pair now live in Philadelphia, where they are often seen on a tandem in the park.

It is scarcely necessary to add that the tires are now inflated solely with air.

A horrid suspicion of cannibalism hangs about the advertisement of a St. Louis, U. S. man—"Wanted—a good girl to cook, and one who will make a good roast or broil and will stew well." Almost as barbarous is a farmer near Fulton, N. Y., who posted this notice his house, extending a cordial invitation to stop, with all the free good-fellowship for which our girl's hereabouts are noted. Then off, as the case may be."

WE'RE FOR AMERICA & AMERICANS!

BRADLEY!

Kentucky's Own Son for President.

BRADLEY'S CURRENT PLATFORM.

"I am opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing it would destroy all National prosperity. The gold dollar is the best dollar, and I am in favor of making every other dollar equivalent to it in value. I am the friend of silver, and believe it can be best protected by holding its issue in such bonds as will insure its parity with gold as a circulating medium." — W. O. BRADLEY.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Mason county are requested to meet in Convention at the Courthouse in Maysville on April 12th, 1861.—Court Day, at 1 o'clock, p.m., for the purpose of selecting Delegates to the District Convention to be held at Maysville on Tuesday, April 14th.

Also to select Delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville April 15th, 1861. The District Convention will be the purpose of sending Delegates from the North Congressional District to the National Republican Convention, to be held at St. Louis June 16th. Every Republican is highly invited.

W. O. OXLEY, Chairman.

THERE are some people moving about the earth to save funeral expenses who are so internally mean that they would gladly go to hell if they thought some other people stood any chance of breaking into heaven.

ACCORDING to the monthly statement which Auditor STONE has sent to Governor BRADLEY, the following amounts are now in the State Treasury:

General expenditure $4,041.13

Sinking fund 164,043.45

School fund 22,001.78

Total $205,086.35

The legacy of debt left to Kentucky by the outgoing Democratic Administration, as shown by long outstanding warrants, amounts to $363,965.69, which will in a few days be increased to upward of a million dollars, owing to the recent enactment which obliges the payment of the per capita allowance to Asylums and other institutions in advance.

HON. JAMES S. CLARKSON is one of those shrewd and observing politicians who is not given to talking through his hat. He was First Assistant Postmaster General under President HARRISON, and is now a member of the Republican National Committee from the state of Iowa. He was in New York a few days ago, and speaking of the Presidential situation this is what he said:

"I find that the McKinley sentiment is grossly exaggerated. After a thorough canvass of the situation, I find that it is hardly likely that McKinley will come within 100 votes of securing the nomination on the first ballot. If not nominated on the first ballot it does not seem to me that he will be nominated at all. The combination against him will be too strong."

While the electric light continues to shine the stanchions McKinley singer may find a front seat in the Bradley hand-wagon!

A very large number of Justices of the Peace and Constables throughout Kentucky will very much regret to learn that the new Republican Administration at Frankfort has concluded to "set down" on a very large number of illegal "claims" which are on file up there, and which have heretofore been allowed. The looting of the State Treasury must be stopped; and the raids on County Treasuries ought to be checked also.

The deficiency in Uncle Sam's Treasury at Washington for the first four days of April was $2,753,440, 54, for the fiscal year $21,544,142.75, and for the Cleveland Administration $19,415,626.51. Oh, my! what a "record" you are making over there on the Potomac!

The statement of Mr. KAUFFMAN of the Kaufman Milling Company of St. Louis, one of the largest exporters of flour in the country, that the sales of that concern in Cuba and Porto Rico were $3,000 to $4,000 per month before the reciprocity treaties were made, and about $25,000 per month during, and the time the treaties were in force, whereas since the repeal of the treaties they have fallen from $2,000 to $3,000 per month, is a conclusive argument in favor of the party which established the reciprocity policy and will restore it as soon as possible.

WITHOUT HATS.

Fondick's Law Was Quite Generally Obeyed in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, April 7.—For the first time in the history of local theatricals most of the lady performers sat through the performances bareheaded. Especially was this true at the Fountain theater in the evening where there was scarcely a woman in the audience who had a bonnet on. As they came in with their escorts the doorman politely requested them to remove their hats, and with perhaps only one exception, they did so smartly and willingly.

At 10 o'clock the same rule was enforced. It remains to be seen how it works at the Walnut and Grand Monday night.

Judgment for New York State.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The court of claims Monday rendered judgment for $44,114.94 in favor of the state of New York for advances made to the United States during the war. This includes interest on an original claim.

FATAL QUARREL.

A Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Shoots a Companion at Milldale, Ky.

COVINGTON, Ky., April 7.—Those are my brothers, exclaimed William Christian, 15, yesterday evening, at the Madison pine, Milldale, Ky., Sunday, after the quarrel which followed he was fatally shot by Joe Besterman, aged 15. Christian and a companion named North, 15, had been quibbling. Young Besterman pulled his revolver from his pocket and holding it against Christian's side, fired.

The colored boy fell to the ground, and his companions helped him to his home. The boy had entered the left lung, and Dr. Bird, of Milldale, said the wound was fatal.

Besterman's father is a well-known painter in Milldale. The boy went home and said nothing about the shooting. He was locked up in the Covington jail. When Christian died Monday night.
